A Double Attraction for Today in the May Sales

Hundreds and Hundreds of Fresh and Charming

Crepe de Chine and Georgette Crepe, Pussy Willow and Radium Silk

BLOUSES

A noteworthy occasion, an unusually advantageous one for the Palais Royal and patrons, because of a somewhat backward season creating an exception to the rule, making really noted makers willing to listen to terms. Thus come Blouses of unusual merit at considerably less than the specialty store quotations. Another important factor—variety and qualities are much greater. Exclusiveness, daintiness, needlework, these are the points that make these blouses so desirable—and the prices so attractive. Details are briefly attempted below—but can exclusiveness, daintiness, and needlework be pictured in so many words? On exhibition and for sale this morning after 9 o'clock.

Group 1--At $3.95

—Comprising 514 Blouses, Very Few of Which Will be Valued at Less Than $5.00.

Up-to-the-minute styles of dress, tailored and sport models, of Georgette, crepe de chine and tub silks with satin stripes, pussy willow and radium silks. The frills on some and the laces on others are applied in typical French style. The tailored models have to be tried on—the fit at neck and shoulders is not to be described in words.

Group 2--At $2.95

Values to $4.00 Are in This Grouping, with Superb Models for Stout Figures Included.

Satin-striped Tub Silks, Crepe de Chine, and real Georgette Blouses, in all of the newest styles for ordinary and stout figures. The new large collars and cuffs, of course, and all the touches that mean exclusiveness and daintiness. And needlework—Note the lingerie blouses and the application of the embroidery and filet and val laces. Plainer tailored models also. Values to $4.00, at $2.95.

Group 3--At $1.95

Twenty New Models, with All the Daintiness of the More Expensive.

A little less elaboration, but with all the character of high-priced blouses. Some trimmed with val, cluny and filet laces; some the plainer sport styles, others of good quality Japanese silk and striped tub silk. Exceptionally attractive at the price—$1.95.

Group 4--At $1.00

Blouses of Daintiness and Yet With Needlework to Assure Satisfactory Service.

So many Blouses at $1.00 are palpably $1.00 blouses. See the 18 styles in this unusual sale and be impressed with models different and better. Whether only with pin tucks or with more elaborate lace and embroidery trimmings, whether with large collars of plain organdy, or novelty tissues in stripes and figures, you cannot but note the superiority in every detail to blouses ordinarily sold at $1.00.

Group 5--Sweaters

—And New Coat Smocks, Constituting a Latest Fashion Exhibit and Sale Extraordinary.

The New Slip-on Sweaters at $5.00 will prove a delight—of Shetland weave worsted. The large sailor collar, turn-back cuffs and sash are features. At $7.95, $8.95 and $10.75 are Fiber-Silk Sweaters selling in New York today at $10.00 to $12.50. At $5.50—a price surprise—are Fiber-Silk Sweaters with sash, collar, cuffs as in the more expensive—and in lovely shades of rose, gold, Copenhagen and green.

On Sale This Morning—Palais Royal, Third Floor, 6 Elevators.
